COMMUNITY

“Everyone you meet is afraid of something, loves something, and has lost something.”

This past week I stumbled across the above quote. It is by H. Jackson Brown, Jr., the author of the book, Life's Little Instruction Book. It ties in with something that was taught to me years ago, credited to someone, somewhere: all humans, regardless of where they live on this planet, have three things in common: We are born, we live, and we die. I think Jackson Brown's words help to fill in the details of living: we all are afraid of something, we all love something, and we have all lost something. I would add one more thing: we are all searching for answers to the questions that this universal commonality creates.

We search for answers in many places. We turn to others for help. We seek out friends and respected leaders and mentors. Sometimes we just open up to strangers, sharing things with them we would not share with someone we know. We study the scriptures, we pray for guidance, and seek God's presence in quiet reflection.

Yet what I have found time and time again, is that the answers I seek can be found within my faith community. It is found being in fellowship with my church family, within the worship ritual, bowed in prayer, singing hymns, and sharing the bread and cup of the Lord's table. For it is in the church's words and deeds that the questions that come from living on this planet find their answers – and most importantly, their purpose.

So, as you gather in worship this Sunday, look at the faces of those gathered with you. We all share things in common. We are all afraid of something; we all have loved; and we all have lost something. All of which makes us vulnerable, fragile, and broken—but most importantly, not alone.

I look forward to walking, searching, and seeking in worship with you this and every Sunday.

Blessings,
~Pastor Richard

From the book, Circle of Grace, by Jan Richardson
Blessing When the World is Ending

Look, the world is always ending somewhere. Somewhere the sun has come crashing down.

Somewhere it has gone completely dark.

Somewhere it has ended with the gun, the knife, the fist.

Somewhere it has ended with the slammed door, the shattered hope.

Somewhere it has ended with the utter quiet that follows the news from the phone, the television, the hospital room.

Somewhere it has ended with a tenderness that will break your heart.

But, listen, this blessing means to be anything but morose. It has not come to cause despair.

It is simply here because there is nothing a blessing is better suited for than an ending, nothing that cries out more for a blessing than when a world is falling apart.

This blessing will not fix you, will not mend you, will not give you false comfort; it will not talk to you about one door opening when another one closes.

It will simply sit itself beside you among the shards and gently turn your face toward the direction from which the light will come, gathering itself about you as the world begins again.

Today, for me, this table is the blessing.

Thank you, Lord. You are with us and the source from which light comes to us. We are blessed.

Take Care,
~Fred

CWF NEWS

The Community Fun Day has kept us quite busy for the entire month of October. Watch for details (and photos) of the event in a future newsletter. Without lots of help, this type of event would not be possible. From flyer distribution to auction item collection, baking, cooking, help getting the bounce house & BBQ cooker, and working at the event, many hands make this event possible. Your assistance will make it possible to give back to the community. Thank you!

God Bless!
~Kay Ainsworth, CWF Director

CWF TUESDAY MORNING CIRCLE

Tuesday morning circle met at interlude Oct. 10 with 14 attending nice to have Gaby Wolverton with us. We hope she will come again. It was also nice to have Diana Love back with us.

After our delicious meal, we sang happy birthday to Nancy Griffith and presented her with a cake (after we sampled it). Donna went over some upcoming events. Elaine's lesson was on repentance. We read scripture and spoke of our experiences.

Our next meeting will be November 14, at 11:45. Come and join us to enjoy food, fellowship and Elaine's lesson.

~Donna Haulsee

MONDAY CWF WILL MEET

on November 20th. Please join us then and on the 3rd Monday of each month as we meet in Andy's Sunday School room at 7:00 pm.

~Carole Kerr

Busy times for youth....Fall activities, school, football games, sports....oh my!

~Abby Matschke

AFTERNOON DELIGHT

The next meeting will be at 2:00 PM on Tuesday, November 7th at the Schmidt home. Come and enjoy after you vote!

Hope to see you!

The OBCC Family extends condolences to the Wolverton Family upon the passing of David Wolverton. Please keep all the family in your prayers. Services for David were here on October 8th.

The OBCC Family extends condolences to the Brantley Family upon the passing of Duie Brantley. Please keep all the family in your prayers. Services for Duie were here on October 16, with burial at Peninsula Memorial Park (Newport News) following the service.

Thank You! I have received wonderful news after my cancer treatment...my cancer appears to be inactive. Prayers from your church family were instrumental in my remission. The diagnosis was dire, but now looks brighter. I am so thankful to God and to you for your prayers and healing thoughts. I never discount the power of prayer.

~Marolyn Pierce (Carolyn Hunt's twin sister)

Donations of food and cash have greatly enhanced our mission to feed and care for the many needy families in our community. This partnership is key to their success.

to report that the program with Becky Watson, Music Therapist, moved along like a well-oiled machine. She presented a much-enjoyed program on The Harvest. She hauled in mountains of drums and other instruments for group participation. You should have heard Tyler on his drums! This was a time of reaping, I tell you!

It was a full day, as it was our 2nd birthday celebration. We remembered the three guests who now call heaven home. As the names of Joe Dombrowski, Bob Gustafson, and Naomi Marrow were called, bells were rung as a remembrance of them and their time with us. We made note of three more who are no longer able to attend due to increasing frailness. God blessed again with two new guests! And Donna blessed us with the cutest block Pumpkins for our Craft. BINGO provided many prizes for all to take home, along with Trick or Treat bags of goodies!

I know that no matter how hectic some days are, I need not fear the outcome. God provides me with many rewards: Tyler's belly laugh and watching Grandma Paula lovingly meet his needs month after month; Jeanne saying, "I'm so glad to see you today"; hugs and kisses to and from everyone; Angie's phone call later saying, "Thank you for my neck massage, it felt so good".

These things cost nothing but love on our part. Do you have some extra love you would like to share with these sweet friends of ours? We could use more loving hands to help us minister to their needs and to add joy to your life and theirs. Our Day out is on the 2nd Wednesday of each month from 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM. Interested? Call me (757-206-1960).

Now I wonder, could I have planned any of this, had I tried? Thank you, Lord!

Love in Jesus Name, Blessings,
~Louise Smith, ODO Coordinator

FOOD SHARING PROGRAM UPDATE

Your grateful giving brings hope to the daily lives of our neighborhood families who benefit from your food donations. We are thankful for your grateful spirit! Thanks for your loving response to the needs of the least of those in our neighborhood.

OBCC ANNUAL MEETING SET for Sunday, November 12, following the 11 AM service. Join your OBCC family in the New Fellowship Hall to hear important news....and to vote on the budget and leadership for 2018. Be part of the decisions that take OBCC forward into the new year!

OUR DAY OUT

Being Coordinator of ODO has caused me to totally lean on God as my best-laid plans are sometimes laid to waste!!! At our last gathering, I knew I had to reassign some of the Volunteers, as there were situations that cropped up and could not be changed. And things continued to change throughout the course of the morning... God stepped in the way He always does, and I'm happy

WALK WITH OBCC

The Walk was held on October 28th with many Disciple Walkers attending and walking. Watch for pictures and details to come.

WORLD OUTREACH NEWS

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD SUCCESSFUL AGAIN!

Boxes appeared daily throughout October. The boxes will be taken to the drop center for shipping to children all over the world. Your generosity is awesome! You will put smiles on the faces of children who do not have much to smile about in their daily lives.

THANKSGIVING OFFERING SET FOR NOVEMBER 12 & 19

The Thanksgiving Offering benefits the colleges, universities, and graduate theological institutions affiliated with the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). These learning communities encourage students in their intellectual pursuits and form them to make contributions to community, society, and the world.

Since the beginning of the movement, higher education has been a priority for the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), and the legacy is reflected in the continuing successes of our educational institutions.

Our gift to the Thanksgiving offering helps to underwrite the education of students attending one of our 14 colleges & universities and 7 theological institutions. Thank you for participating and supporting this year's giving efforts.

Offering opportunities occur on November 12 & 19 during both services.

~Shelia Yeatts

74 HYGIENE KITS GO IN BUNCHES TO THOSE IN NEED....WITH LOVE

On October 13, I took kits to Hampton Christian Church to ship out. Many are still in need all around the world. Our outstanding effort will make a dent in that need. Just imagine what it must feel like to have soap and towel to clean up with after enduring a storm or fire disaster!

In His Name & Blessing
~Sheila Yeatts

CHURCH SERVICE REMINDER

If you attend the later service at OBCC, be sure to join you OBCC family in the sanctuary at 10:55 AM to greet each other and hear all the important news before the worship service begins. By gathering for greeting and announcements just before 11, we can make sure that the service does not run too long....and that you can move on to other fun activities with your OBCC family or your own.

See you in the sanctuary at 10:55 AM!

ALL SAINTS' DAY: This service will be on Sunday, November 5th. On that day, we will remember our loved ones, friends, and church members who have passed away since last year's service. If you wish to have someone's name listed, please call or e-mail the church office by the end of Wednesday, November 1st. Please include a full name, month of death, and relationship.

NEW! On that Sunday, please bring a stand-alone candle to be used during the service for remembrance, if you wish.

NOTE: Names on the list as of publication date are: Louise Bell, Linda Joye, Russell Waid, Elizabeth Gardner Higgins Davis, David Duke, George (Jack) Barrow, David Vass, Robert Clayton Key, David Wolverton, Duie Brantley

Bethlehem Walk Begins
(thru Dec 3rd)

BACKSTAGE SHOW COMING ON DECEMBER 8:

The Backstage Production troupe will share its latest show with the OBCC family at 7 PM on December 8 in the New Fellowship Hall. It's their way of saying thank you for all that the OBCC does for them. Plan to join them for a brief performance of Oliver Twist & the Christmas Cantata.

BETHLEHEM WALK

Ask Jim & Paula Thacker about their experience with this unique outing:

Bethlehem Walk will return again beginning Wednesday, November 29, 2017. The interactive outdoor drama where guests experience first century Bethlehem continues through Sunday, December 3rd. As you enter the city, allow the sights, sounds and smells to carry you to a period of time that changed the world. Journey through the heart of the city to the marketplace that is bustling with activity from over a dozen authentic shops; enjoy samples from the baker's shop, see the blacksmith at work making crucifixion nails, marvel at the potter's crafts and listen for the rumor of a king's birth from excited townspeople.

Since its inaugural season in 2003, Bethlehem Walk has thrilled and emotionally touched visitors from across the Commonwealth. Each season, Salem partners with various area churches to reach thousands of people with this interactive Gospel drama that takes visitors through scenes ranging from the entrance of the Savior into the world to an empty Jewish tomb.

The tour is outside and takes approximately 45 minutes. Wait times for the event could be anywhere from 1 to 3 hours. Dress appropriately for the weather. The rough terrain is not suitable for wheelchairs; however we do have "chariots" to accommodate you. Admission is free and parking is available on the property. Shuttle service is provided to and from satellite parking locations. Donations to help defray all associated costs are accepted, and Bethlehem Walk T-Shirts will be available for purchase (all proceeds go towards associated expenses).

Bethlehem Walk is Salem's holiday "gift" to the community. Many families will take their children to see Santa Claus at the mall this year. Bethlehem Walk is a way to experience the true meaning of Christmas.

Bethlehem Walk relies on the generous contributions of the members of Salem Baptist Church and our community. If you, your family, or your company would like to be a part of this community outreach, please consider becoming a Bethlehem Walk Partner. You can support Bethlehem Walk by making a contribution to assist in defraying the many costs that go into making this drama happen. Donations may be made at Bethlehem Walk in the fellowship tent or sent to the Cardwell Campus address.

THE GRACE OF GRATITUDE

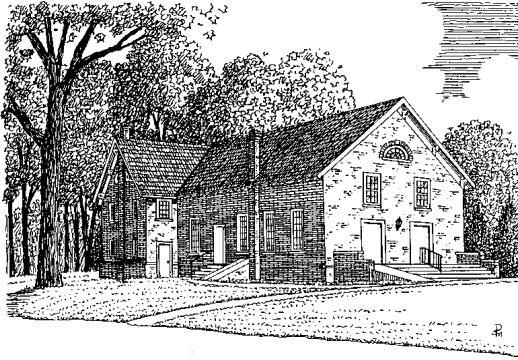

BETWEEN SUMMER'S HEAT AND WINTER'S CHILL,
NATURE SETS A PENSIVE MOOD
AS WE CELEBRATE THANKSGIVING
DURING AUTUMN'S INTERLUDE.
THERE IS A GRACE OF GRATITUDE
ON SMOKY DREAM-FILLED DAYS
WHEN WE PAUSE TO COUNT OUR BLESSINGS
AND OFFER GOD OUR PRAISE.

WE GATHER WITH FRIENDS AND FAMILY,
GIVE THANKS FOR DAILY THINGS,
FOR THE BOUNTY OF THE HARVEST
AND JOYS THAT FREEDOM BRINGS.
IT IS A TIME TO REMINISCE,
FOR SHARING RECIPES -
GRANDMA'S PICKLES, GRANDPA'S CIDER,
EACH GUARANTEED TO PLEASE.

IT'S A FEARFUL TIME FOR TURKEYS
THIS LOVELY TIME OF YEAR
FOR IF THEIR PRAYERS WERE ANSWERED,
THEY ALL WOULD DISAPPEAR!
NATURE'S ART IS ON DISPLAY,
GRAND TOKENS OF GOD'S LOVE,
AND PRAISE THE LORD ABOVE.
