CHRISTIAN CHURCH
(DISCIPLES OF CHRIST)

WELCOME NEW MEMBER!

Waltraud (Trudy) Chism joined July 14, 2024

Welcome!

GOOD FLAVORS

In 1988 I moved to Hanover County to serve as the pastor of Slash Christian Church. It did not take long to discover the crown jewel of that county: the Hanover Tomato. County citizens then and now laud eloquently about their tomato's texture, shape, and flavor – all due to the unique soil characteristics found nowhere else in the Commonwealth. Since it has now been 29 years since I completed my ministry there, I feel it is safe to finally confess the truth: I couldn't tell the difference between a Hanover tomato and one grown in Louisa, Henrico, or New Kent!

But I am not a tomato connoisseur. Those that are will speak of the importance of "terroir", the environmental conditions such as soil and climate, which can impart unique flavors to plants like tomatoes. We often hear wine makers talk in similar ways about the importance of terrain, drainage, sunlight, and water quality on wine grapes, with certain combinations creating unique flavors. Now that same understanding of "terroir" is being applied to oysters!

Last Sunday the congregation presented Ann and me with a gift certificate to mark my 14th anniversary as your minister. The certificate was to Merroir, a restaurant on the Rappahanock River near Topping, VA. The name of the restaurant intrigued me, so I looked it up. The word merroir comes in part from the French word for sea, mer. In essence, merroir was crafted with terroir to describe the importance of an oyster's habitat. Just as wines may be affected by soil, sun, and microclimate, oysters are affected by water quality, algae, current and tide, and mineral content of the sea floor. As you can imagine, Merroir's oysters were delicious. Ann and I greatly enjoyed our meal, and thank the church for such a kind gift.

But my trip and subsequent research also prodded me into thinking how important religious "terroir" is to our spiritual development. Olive Branch is a place where faith is born and Christians develop. Part of the process for those who have been "growing" for a while and are established as strong vines, is to provide a "terroir" for newer vines to grow. The longer I am in ministry, the stronger I believe the element of encouragement to be. Simply put, we need to be like Barnabas, one of the early evangelists in the first century church, and a co-worker with the Apostle Paul – encouragers. The very nickname given to Barnabas bears this out: he was "the son of encouragement".

You are called to be encouragers here in this terroir called Olive Branch Christian Church. That is why we pray, meet together, worship and eat together: to see new believers come to faith and mature Christians experience the power of spiritual renewal. Plant your seeds of encouragement in this unique place and watch them grow!

Blessings,
~Pastor Richard

Our voices raised in beautiful harmony to the national anthem, God bless America, America the Beautiful, and more. Christy Jensen was her usual clever self and delighted us with facts and myths about our flag and its colors and what they stand for. Did you know that only one other country celebrates July 4th?

Fried chicken and wonderful salads accompanied our delicious cake dessert. Judy and Ethel were the craft helpers as Jane was not able to be here although she provided the neat craft material for stars and stripes.

Bingo leader Tyler was his usual clever self, and his big smile makes the game so much more fun. Anita and I really enjoyed decorating the hall with flags, statues, Stars and Stripes.

For next month, we decided to make the theme Summer Heat, not that it's been hot this year. Fellowship, family, faith, fun, and food remains the reason ODO was started. I feel very blessed every time we get together and hope that if you need a lift of all or only one of the five "F's", please join us!

May God Bless You Always,

OUR DAY OUT-2ND WEDNESDAYS

It was a beautiful day for our patriotic celebration at Our Day Out. Everyone wore red, white, and blue. Chef Sheila made two beautiful cakes and decorated them with fruits in keeping with our patriotic theme. Check out the picture below!

FAMILY CAMP REPORT

Family camp is a little-known camp held after the last triple camp each year at Craig Springs deep in the mountains about an hour from Roanoke. Cheryl Johnson and I attended the weekend camp this year and had a great time of fellowship and gathering. There were very capable staff and volunteers who led the weekend activities.

The director was Michael Stump and assistant leader was Robin Gradwell-Lancaster. Elaine Austin was the worship leader and centered the sessions around water and Worship and Wonder. Little Emerson, an up and coming 4-year-old, had to correct Elaine when she put a piece of blue felt representing the Red Sea. Emerson said, "It wasn't blue but red." Susan Baum was camp nurse, Jasmine Heath had us all involved in music, and Teresa Anderson had everyone making crosses or key chains.

There was freedom to roam or just sit on the rocking chairs on the porch. Playful prayer stations were a big hit and several people wrote letters to God. All ages were represented from a baby of 10 months to three ladies in their 80's. I asked Cheryl her favorite part and she of course mentioned the children and how peaceful the area is. My daughter, Cherrine, and son, Neal, joined in a card game. The game involved 7 decks of cards, so shuffling was an issue that had us laughing so hard that my sides ached.

The camp is not promoted, and registration needs to be updated but well worth the trouble. I saw a car from Florida. My son, Neal, and a friend came from Indiana. Bon Air Christian Church was well-represented. It would have been nice to get to know the other campers better. There should be an opportunity next year.

CHRISTIAN HOSPITAL MUNGELI NEWS

The Director of the Christian Hospital Mungeli, our Global Mission partner since 1896, recently shared the following about a nursing student:

"Ms. Tanvi Masih is an orphan admitted to School Of Nursing at Christian Hospital Mungeli for the General Nursing and Midwifery three-year course in the class of 2022-2025. She had completed her 12th grade in Burgess Hindi Medium School with the support of the diocese of Chhattisgarh. With the help of hostel superintendent, Ms. Shailja Masih, she had joined the GNM course. During her admission, Ms. Shailja Masih assured her she would pay her fees to the school management committee; however, only 25000/- Rs has been paid from synod towards her academic fee. She has due for GNM first, second, and third year. The Burgess school and hostel itself is now on the verge of closing and any support from them in the near future is not expected.

Tanvi is a God-fearing student and wants to continue working for the marginalized once she finishes her studies.

The grant received from Rambo committee has been utilized to help waive this student's course fee."

The Rambo Committee is a recognized partner of Global Ministries in support of the work of the Christian Hospital Mungeli. Olive Branch Christian Church has been an integral part of our mission in support of this rural mission hospital in north central India.

ST. OLAF FOOD SHARING PROGRAM

First and foremost, we are grateful for your cheerful giving spirit that supports our St. Olaf Food Sharing Program. After our food drop-off in our church parking lot on June 15th, we delivered to St. Olaf 630 food donations and a check for $4125.00 from the accumulated cash and checks you have contributed to this community outreach mission. Your extraordinary giving provides additional supplemental food support for 3618 individuals in our neighborhood. St. Olaf sent us a letter expressing their appreciation. The letter is attached on the next page of this newsletter.

We realize providing additional nourishment to our neighbors is not just a shared responsibility; it is a purposeful act of becoming more Christ like. Your support is a service of joy.

Reminder: the food donation box is outside of the Pastor's Office and a food basket is located in Branch Hall at the main entrance.

Check donations: Make the check to OBCC, designate in the check note line St. Olaf Food Sharing.

Thanks be to God, together we are committed to this mission!

Dear Pastor Cline,

On behalf of St. Olaf Food Pantry Ministry, I would like to extend my sincere appreciation for your recent food drive benefiting St. Olaf Food Pantry.

Without the support of community partners like you, we could not continue to provide for those facing food insecurities in our area. Your efforts brought us over 400 pounds of food and other needed items along with the most generous donation of $4,125.00. Your donation will go a long way towards our regular pantry and our Children's Summer Program that provides food for the children not receiving meals at school during the summer break. We are blessed to have you as our partners in fighting hunger in our area.

The peace of Christ be with you,

Donna M. Hamilton
Director - St. Olaf Food Pantry
St. Olaf Catholic Church

As a faith community working together, we will continue to bridge the gaps in the lives of the hungry; we can continue to show our love for our neighbors in part because of your commitment to making a positive change in our world.

Vacation Bible School is such a special time,
When many children of all ages,
Come from the surrounding community,
To learn from Christian sages.

Volunteers who love the Lord,
Come to plant a little seed,
Into the heart of each child,
That to Jesus, it will lead.

They will learn new music,
And sing a familiar song,
That tells them of God's love,
To Jesus they belong.

Recreation will be fun,
While developing some new skills,
As they come to depend on others,
Learn the need that teamwork fills.

Crafts teach a sense of accomplishment,
As little hands design a creation,
Later shown off to their families,
In joyful celebration!

Meals are served in abundance,
Provided by hands of love,
Who grew and prepared the food,
And blessed by God above.

Jesus said to let the children come,
And forbid them not,
For such is the Kingdom of Heaven,
We, like Him, love each one a lot.
